We are coming close to an end to the school year and it wouldn't be right if we did not have a field day. Unfortunately, we are unable to have one with you. We have a great opportunity and lesson from a great resource to try and give you a chance to experience a field day at home!

You will notice through these things, there are many activities that you and your family can participate in if you have the equipment. Some activities require less than the others and we hope with all of these options, you can find a few to participate in.

I hope you all have a great time doing these activities with your family and remember to stay active!!
